Plaintiff Cybernet Entertainment LLC (hereinafter referred to as “Plaintiff” or “Cybernet”) by and through its counsel, for its complaint against Defendants IG Media Inc. dba YouJizz.com and JizzHut.com and JizzOnline.com and OnlyJizz.com and JizzBo.com and MoviesGuy.com and HotFunHouse.com and YouJizzPremium.com and Igor Gens (collectively hereinafter referred to as “Defendant” or “Defendants”) based upon federal question and supplementary jurisdiction, for just cause presents the Court with the following Complaint and requests for relief.

INTRODUCTION

Piracy of copyrighted and trademarked works is a multi-billion dollar, global industry of theft. The piracy of legal adult entertainment is the training ground for all other forms of online piracy – audio books, television shows, digital music files, and general release Hollywood movies. USA Today wrote, “Online porn often leads high-tech way”¹ and it is a fact that pornography lead the technological advances and mass acceptance of VHS, DVD’s, the growth of the Internet, streaming video, online advertising, online payment processing, and downloads. Online piracy of pornography has lead the way for piracy of more mainstream copyrighted works; it has provided a roadmap at a significant cost to the legitimate and legal adult and mainstream entertainment industries. The pirates of pornography are masterful at their craft and execute with precision. They diligently find ways to hide assets and identities while exploiting weaknesses in their prey. Piracy such as that committed by Defendants is committed only for profit; no party engages in piracy out of any feeling of philanthropic responsibility or to further constitutional free expression. The Rand Institute’s 2009 publication Film, Piracy, Organized Crime, and Terrorism determined that “Piracy is high in payoff – with profit margins greater than those of illegal narcotics – and low in risk often taking place under the radar of law enforcement. In addition, terrorist groups have in some cases used the proceeds of film piracy to finance their

1 activities. Besides being a threat to the global information economy, counterfeiting threatens 2 public safety and national security.”²

3 In May 2011, Assistant Attorney General Lanny A. Breuer of the Criminal Division
4 during a speech to the International Anti-Counterfeiting Coalition Spring Conference said, 5 “[Intellectual Property] IP Crime is a serious threat. It jeopardizes the health and safety of 6 consumers. It stifles creativity. And it has a negative effect on the American economy.”³ 7 Piracy is not a victimless crime and piracy of legal adult materials leads to greater occurrences of 8 piracy across all other forms of online intellectual property. It is against this backdrop that the 9 following Complaint is respectfully submitted to the Court.

10 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11 1. Plaintiff is a Limited Liability Company organized under the laws of the State of 12 New York, registered in California, with its principal place of business in San Francisco, 13 California.

15 Inc. and International Media, Ltd. as alter egos, with beneficial ownership of www.YouJizz.com, 16 JizzHut.com, JizzOnline.com, OnlyJizz.com, JizzBo.com, MoviesGuy.com, and 17 HotFunHouse.com.

18 3. Upon information and belief, IG Media Inc. has a business address of 2376 West 19 19th Avenue, Vancouver, British Columbia V6L 1C6 Canada.

20 4. Upon information and belief, International Media Ltd. has a business address of 21 303 Shirley Street, PO Box N-492, Nassau, Bahamas.

1 5. Defendants have a common registered DMCA agent. Agent is listed as Larry G.
2 Walters, Esq., Walters Law Group, 781 Douglas Avenue, Altamonte Springs, FL 32714.

3 6. As set forth in further detail below, to collect the proceeds of its copyright 4 infringement enterprise, Defendants utilize third-party payment processors. One of these third 5 party payment processors is located at 3111 N. University Drive, Suite 1000, Coral Springs, FL 6 33065; [See Attachment 10 Segpay Contact Page].

7 7. The YouJizz, JizzOnline, JizzBo, and OnlyJizz domain names are held by 8 defendants using a registrar located in Scottsdale, Arizona and privacy protection service located 9 at 15111 N. Hayden Road, Suite 160, PMB 353, Scottsdale, Arizona. Jurisdiction is proper 10 where defendants have registered an Internet domain. [See Attachment 3 Whois Records for 11 Defendants].

12 8. The JizzHut, HotFunhouse and MoviesGuy domain names are held by defendants 13 using a registrar and privacy protection service located at P.O. Box 6592, Metairie, LA 70009.
14 [See Attachment 3 WhoIs Records for Defendants]

15 9. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Defendants, who have engaged in 16 business activities in and directed to this district, and have committed tortious acts within this 17 district or directed at this district. Defendants have registered their primary domain names with 18 Domains By Proxy, a domain registrar located in Arizona. Defendant Gens therefore consented 19 to jurisdiction in Arizona by virtue of signing the registration agreement. Further, registering the 20 YouJizz.com domain names in Arizona makes the domain name and its operators subject to 21 jurisdiction in Arizona.
22

23 10. Each alien defendant is subject to jurisdiction in any district. See 28 U.S.C. 1391 24 (“An alien may be sued in any district.”) See also Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(k)(2).
25

1 imposed upon production of legitimate adult entertainment and set a high bar for ethical conduct, 2 including pre- and post- interviews with actors and actresses showing willing if not enthusiastic 3 participation in the production of its videos. Legitimate producers do not “make” anyone do 4 anything – only consenting adults participate, and the final product is only sold to consenting
5 adults through age-restricted channels. Both men and women participate in front of and behind 6 the camera at jobs that require real skill and dedication. As the “mainstream” actor James 7 Franco pointed out “I got a video camera and my girlfriend and I decided to film ourselves. We 8 watched it back and said, ‘Yeah, let’s never do that again.’ Those people in pornos, they are 9 great performers. They’re not just doing it, they’re selling it to an audience.” Huffington Post

14 17. Cybernet itself directly employs over 100 people, with the majority of those being 15 technical, high tech, programming, and white collar positions.

16 18. Cybernet, also known as Kink.com, has grown from a side project by a graduate 17 student to the world’s most recognized and respected company promoting the acceptance of 18 human sexuality. Cybernet is headquartered in the historic State Armory and Arsenal, generally 19 referred to as the San Francisco Armory, a 200,000 square foot facility that served its sole tenant, 20 the California National Guard, until the 1970’s. After the well-publicized purchase of this 21 landmark building in the usually “live and let live” City of San Francisco, Cybernet faced 22 pushback and protests from neighbors who did not want the producer of adult fetish films 23 occupying the landmark structure. Taking a positive and pro-active approach to its situation, 24 Cybernet has striven to be a good corporate neighbor and member of its community, updating 25 and utilizing its vast “drill court” for community events and earning support of local groups.

5 19. Cybernet's popularity has made it one of the most easily recognized brands in the 6 adult industry and a global leader in legal adult fetish films. Plaintiff's highly sought after 7 intellectual property is distributed on a wide range of platforms around the globe, including pay-8 per-view, internet and mobile devices. As part of a pattern of sound business practices, Cybernet 9 has protected its trade names such as Kink.com, Naked Kombat, HogTied, Devine Bitches, 10 Bound Gods, Public Disgrace, The Training of O, The Upper Floor, and Ultimate Surrender 11 through United States trademark and service mark registrations and protected its videos through 24 works identified in the paragraphs below. Plaintiff has taken industry standard steps to identify 25

26

1 its products, including placing recorded warnings at the beginning and end of video productions
2 that appear whenever those videos are played. Plaintiff's videos are watermarked with Plaintiff's 3 readily identifiable logos and many of Plaintiff's videos begin with a very recognizable opening

21 come to know, rely upon and recognize the mark BOUND GODS as an international brand of 22 high quality adult entertainment.

24 continuously used in commerce since October 2009. U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3870498

3 has come to know, rely upon and recognize the mark DIVINE BITCHES as an international 4 brand of high quality adult entertainment.

5 43. Plaintiff has produced, published and catalogued in excess of 10,000 adults-only 6 or adult-oriented audio-visual works and holds over 2200 United States copyrights for its works.

7 44. Upon information and belief, Defendant Igor Gens utilizes a shell corporation 8 known as International Media Ltd., which has a business address of 303 Shirley Street, PO Box 9 N-492, Nassau, Bahamas and also utilizes IG Media Inc., with a business address of 2376 West 10 19th Avenue, Vancouver, British Columbia V6L 1C6 Canada. These two companies are alter 11 egos of Gens, dominated by Gens, used to evade liability due to illegal copyright infringement.
12 Evidence to pierce the corporate veil will be offered following discovery.

13 45. Upon information and belief, Defendants conduct business as YouJizz.com, 14 JizzHut.com, JizzOnline.com, OnlyJizz.com, JizzBo.com, HotFunHouse.com, MoviesGuy.com, 15 and YouJizzPremium.com; and operate the respective websites [hereinafter Defendants]

16 46. Upon information and belief, Defendants directly financially benefit from all sales 17 to YouJizzPremium.com.

18 47. Defendants compete against Plaintiff in the distribution and sale of adults-only 19 audio-visual works through Internet distribution and divert potential customers from Plaintiff.
20

21 48. Defendants list Larry G. Walters, Esq., Walters Law Group, 781 Douglas Avenue, 22 Altamonte Springs, FL 32714 as designated DMCA agent.

23 49. Defendants utilize a third-party payment processor commonly known as SegPay, 24 which is located at 3111 N. University Drive, Suite 100, Coral Springs, FL 33065.
26

1 proudly displays the number of instances in which a particular piece of media has been played on 2 its website as number of “views”. One video has been viewed over 1,544,000 times!

3 54. Copyright law states that any material that is "reproduced, performed, publicly 4 displayed, or made into a derivative work without permission" is an illegal violation of the rights 5 of the copyright owner. By its definition each view constitutes a separate and distinct instance of 6 infringement that is produced on a viewer’s computer. Plaintiff’s intellectual property has been 7 viewed over eight million (8,000,000) times, available for months and for some videos, years, on 8 Defendant’s websites. With the enormous amount of internet users on Defendant’s websites, the 9 number of uncompensated views grows daily thus furthering the number of copyright 10 infringements and contributing to the further dilution of the Plaintiff’s trade and service marks.

11 55. Upon information and belief, Defendants allow third parties to display Plaintiff’s 12 intellectual property to third parties on third party websites for the purpose of driving traffic back 13 to Defendants. Defendants have enabled this feature by providing an “embed code” for every 14 video on its site. An internet user can copy and paste the embed code on another website where 15 the video can then be viewed. The number of views displayed on Defendants’ websites does not 16 reflect the number of views on those sites. This significantly increases the number of views.
17 This number grows daily thus furthering the number of copyright infringements and contributing 18 to the further dilution of the Plaintiff’s trade and service marks.

19 56. Upon information and belief, a large portion of videos available on the websites 20 appear to be copyrighted videos that, upon information and belief, are not owned by Defendant 21 but are owned by well-known and long-established members of the adult –oriented audio -visual 22 entertainment industry.

23 57. Upon information and belief, the Defendant does not qualify for safe harbor
24 protection under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). Although Defendant 25
26

1 registered a DMCA Agent in September 2011, Defendant does not meet all requirements for safe 2 harbor.

3 58. Upon information and belief, the respective Defendant websites draw from a 4 common database, as seen by common features in the unique respective URL addresses. If a 5 user uploads a video to one Defendant website, the other Defendant websites will draw upon and 6 use that data to create unique pages to display the video. Therefore, Defendant may claim a 7 video is user uploaded for one website, but the other websites are not displaying user uploaded 8 content – rather those websites are sourcing their videos independently of the user. With full 9 knowledge of their actions, Defendants are intentionally creating unique, search engine 10 optimized web pages on completely separate websites for the purpose of earning revenue 11 utilizing the display and distribution of Plaintiff's videos without any license from the rightful 12 owner.

13 59. Plaintiff owns the worldwide rights to its extensive archive of high-quality 14 content.

15 60. Plaintiff has dedicated significant resources to create, distribute, and protect its 16 works. In addition, Plaintiff dedicates resources to be in compliance with applicable laws in 17 order to protect the integrity of their works and the overall adult entertainment industry.

18 61. The viability and profitability of Plaintiff is based upon monies and revenue 19 earned from Plaintiff's intellectual property, including copyrights in Plaintiff's films.

20 62. The Internet, in conjunction with recent significant advances in technology, 21 hardware and software, has resulted in the availability of effective means for circumventing the 22 intellectual property ownership rights in nearly every industry, including adult entertainment.
23 The pervasive and intense online infringement is nearly crippling the adult entertainment
25
26

1 industry, providing unfettered, unregulated, free access to copyrighted works originally produced 2 by reputable businesses and persons.

3 63. Upon information and belief, these infringers are without any accountability to 4 governmental requirements or regulations, without any actual investment in the creation of the 5 works, and without any commitment to the vision of the future of the industry. Nonetheless, 6 these infringers utilize, display, and distribute copyrighted works for which they have no right or 7 proper license for their own commercial and significant financial benefit. These actions have 8 caused and continue to cause significant damage to the business and reputation of the true 9 copyright owners.

10 64. Upon information and belief, Infringers, such as Defendant through the website 11 Defendants, have taken advantage of the existence of legitimate Web sites that properly facilitate 12 the exchange of user-generated content. Defendant websites are truly subscription membership 13 web sites hiding behind the veneer of a simple user-generated content exchange site. Defendants 14 sell premium memberships to its upsell website and pay third parties to send traffic to its 15 websites like a membership website. [See Attachment 9 Defendants Join Form].

16 65. Defendants enjoy direct financial benefits from unauthorized display of Plaintiff's 17 copyrighted content, which deprives Defendants of any safe harbor defenses under the Digital 18 Millennium Copyright Act. Defendant's websites are designed for the sole purpose of taking 19 commercial advantage of copyrighted works without any authority whatsoever and derive benefit 20 from the copyrighted works. This significant commercial and financial advantage is obtained 21 without purchasing or licensing any rights from the copyright holder nor incurring the significant 22 expense of creating and generating the content itself.

23 66. Upon information and belief, Defendants' business model of using unauthorized 24 works without compensation to the works' legitimate owners has significantly contributed to the 25
26

1 ability of Defendants to become some of the most visited websites in the world. Defendant 2 offers unauthorized content for free that legitimate competitors must pay for, with extraordinary 3 results. Defendant then sells premium access to users attracted by the unauthorized content with 4 more extraordinary results. An illegitimate business model based on unauthorized use of 5 competitor's goods will be able to drive out legitimate competitors.

6 67. Upon information and belief, Defendant has created, owns, and/or operates the 7 Internet Web sites YouJizz.com, JizzHut.com, OnlyJizz.com, JizzBo.com, MoviesGuy.com, and 8 HotFunHouse.com. In concert with the Doe Defendants, Defendant Defendants uses these sites 9 to display and distribute Plaintiff's films, among others, to Internet Users. Defendants and the 10 Doe Defendants each know, or have reason to know, that there is no proper license or authority 11 to display and distribute Plaintiff's films on Defendants' websites and no proper license or 12 authority to or obtain commercial financial gain from such display and distribution.

13 68. Defendants use the websites to gather a vast and extensive collection of infringed 14 films to display and distribute. The websites are filled with infringing material, and the websites, 15 working together, draw upon a common database. Most, if not a very large portion, of the 16 content indexed on or available on the website is infringing, unauthorized copyrighted content, 17 including Plaintiff's copyrighted works. The fundamental purpose of the website is to capitalize 18 on the illegal dissemination and contribute to the illegal dissemination of infringing works. This 19 display and distribution provides Defendant Defendants with significant monthly revenues, and 20 hinders Plaintiff's rightful ability to derive financial benefits from their own films.

21 69. Upon information and belief, the display and distribution of Plaintiff's films are 22 accompanied by advertisements that generate Defendants significant annual revenue.
23 Advertisers purchase ad space on certain pages and in certain locations on the websites due to the 24 known or estimated Internet traffic that views the particular page or location. The volume of 25
26

1 Internet traffic on such page or location is directly attributable to the quality of content displayed
2 and distributed. Thus, the quality of Plaintiff's films is directly responsible for the revenue 3 generated by the sale of ad space on Defendants' websites.

4 70. Upon information and belief, the commercial financial benefit and deception
5 regarding the purpose of Defendants' websites is not limited to the large revenues generated 6 through sale of third party advertising space. As opposed to legitimate user generated content 7 exchange sites, Defendants' website induce the Internet user to pay subscription fees.

8 71. Upon information and belief, Defendants do not initially allow users to view high 9 quality versions of Plaintiff's films or download Plaintiff's film to the user's computer, although 10 a user may view the films by lower quality streaming. If the Internet user wishes to view the 11 film in High Definition, or download the video, the user is presented with the option of becoming 12 a Premium Member. The various options presented to the website user include a one (1) day trial 13 for $1.00 that converts to a recurring membership the following day, a one (1) month Premium 14 Membership for $29.95 that renews every 30 days until cancelled, or an annual membership of 15 $88.68.
16

17 72. Upon information and belief, Defendants uses the services of a Florida-based 18 payment processor, SegPay, among others, to collect credit and debit card payments from users 19 who sign up for a premium membership. Financial benefits from the infringement flow through 20 this processor to Defendants. [See Attachment 9 Defendants Join Form and Attachment 10 21 SegPay Contact Page].

22 73. Upon information and belief, this Paid Premium Membership entices the website 23 user to view Plaintiff's works in HD, download the unauthorized and uncompensated 24 copyrighted work belonging to Plaintiff, receive 24/7 customer support, increase download 25
26

1 speeds, and interact with other paid subscribers; all allowing Defendants to directly 2 commercially benefit from Plaintiff's work without any benefit to Plaintiff.

3 74. Upon information and belief, the Internet user, initially lead to believe that 4 Defendants' websites are completely free viewing sites, is presented with paid options to 5 enhance the viewing experience of unauthorized works owned by Plaintiff. The user is permitted 6 to download the films only with further financial benefit to Defendant. Defendants give away 7 unauthorized viewing of Plaintiff's property then entice potential consumers with unauthorized 8 copies of Plaintiff's property without any benefit to Plaintiff.

9 75. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff's copyrighted works have been and 10 continue to be infringed by Defendants and the Doe Defendants through the reproduction, 11 distribution, and public display of Plaintiff's films by and through the Internet Web site 12 Defendants for which Defendant owns the domain registrations and/or is the beneficial owner 13 and to which Defendants and the Doe Defendants, stakeholders of the site, provide essential 14 equipment and support.

15 76. Upon information and belief, the high volume of Internet traffic generated at 16 Defendants' websites is due to the option Internet users are presented in viewing the infringed 17 content for free, rather than obtaining the viewing rights legally and knowingly paying for such 18 rights.

19 77. On or about March 2012, an initial search of Defendant's website revealed and 20 documented over 400 separate instances of copyright infringement of Plaintiff's copyrighted and 21 trademarked intellectual property. As of the date of this Complaint, a total of 420 instances of 22 infringement, identified by name and registration number in the following paragraphs, were 23 documented as being displayed and distributed on the various Defendant websites. Each of these 24 films were displayed and distributed by Defendants and the Doe Defendants, each individually 25

1 and acting in concert with each other, without the consent of, or licensing by, Cybernet, the 2 copyright owner and registrant of the motion picture.

3 78. Plaintiff marks each film with a copyright notice and trademark in order to inform 4 the public of Plaintiff's ownership. Upon information and belief Defendants have altered
5 Plaintiff's films in that these notices and marks have been removed or obscured. Defendants 6 intentionally delete, blur or obscure Plaintiff's watermarks and logos from Plaintiff's videos 7 displayed on Defendants' website, causing consumers to be confused as to the origin of the 8 audio-video content. The manipulation of identifying marks is also evidence of knowledge and 9 intent to infringe Plaintiff's intellectual property rights.

10 79. Upon information and belief, Defendants have actual knowledge and clear notice 11 of this extensive infringement of Plaintiff's titles or else is willfully blind to the rampant 12 infringement. The infringement is clear and obvious even to the most naïve observer. Plaintiff's 13 films are indexed, displayed and distributed on Defendant websites through Defendant and the 14 Doe Defendants acting in concert. Plaintiff's and other major producers' trademarks are used to 15 index infringing material along with obfuscation of watermarks and other identifiers which is 16 evidence of knowledge and intent.

17 80. By virtue of the conduct alleged herein, Defendants knowingly promote, 18 participate in, facilitate, assist, enable, materially contribute to, encourage, and induce copyright 19 and trademark infringement, and thereby have infringed, secondarily infringed, and induced 20 infringement by others, the copyrights and trademarks in Plaintiff's copyrighted work, including 21 but not limited to those listing the paragraphs below.

22 81. Plaintiffs have incurred attorneys' fee and other costs in this action.

23 82. All conditions precedent to the maintenance of this action have occurred, have 24 been performed, or have otherwise been satisfied.
