

KINGS OF NEW YORK
SEASON 2 - EPISODE 2

Lucas Entertainment
589 8th Ave 2nd Floor
New York, NY 10018

1. EXT. NYC SKYLINE - DAY

Night turns to day as the city hustles to start its pace. Through out the lively streets, people are rushing to work, walking their dogs in the park and battling traffic. Johnny and Liam are strolling down the bustling streets of downtown New York.

JOHNNY (V.O.)

In this town, people can spend their entire lives seeking the spotlight. But in this society skill, ambition and talent aren't necessities to fame. Infamy is the ruler. But in that case I don't need all eyes on me, I don't need to the status of a King.

Title appears: Kings of New York

JOHNNY (V.O.)

I'd rather take my pride and walk my own line. The media's new age starlets are lucky if they can even walk a line... or walk at all. They've been fried chasing the rays of the spotlight too long.

3. INT. SALON - DAY

A woman (Patricia) is sitting behind a reception desk. She is bored and looking for any distraction. The phone rings.

PATRICIA

Hello, thank you for calling Sun Kissed. Please hold.

Patricia puts down the phone and turns on her light and fan.

Johnny and Liam walk in. Patricia opens one of her eyes and squints at them. Annoyed they are disturbing her.

The phone rings.

PATRICIA (CONT'D)

Hello, thank you for calling Sun Kissed. Please hold.

Patricia turns off her lamp and greets the men.

PATRICIA (CONT'D)

Hi, do you have an appointment?