JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff ExitExchange Corp., (“ExitExchange”) sues NTT America, Inc. (hereinafter “Defendant”) and, on information and belief, alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff ExitExchange Corp. (“ExitExchange”) owns the inventions described and claimed in United States Patent No. 7,353,229 B2 entitled “Post-Session Internet Advertising System” (the “229 Patent”). Defendant (a) used and continues to use Plaintiff’s patented technology to make pop-under advertisements that Defendant make, use, import, sell, and offer to sell, and (b) contributed to or induced, and continues to contribute to or induce others to infringe the Patent. ExitExchange seeks damages for patent infringement and an injunction preventing Defendant from making, using, selling, or offering to sell, and from contributing to and inducing others to make, use, sell, or offer to sell, the technology claimed by the Patent without Plaintiff’s permission.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271 and 281, et seq. The Court has original jurisdiction over this patent infringement action under 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a).

3. Defendant committed acts and continues to commit acts within this judicial district giving rise to this action. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and § 1400.

PLAINTIFF EXITEXCHANGE

4. Plaintiff ExitExchange is a corporation existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Texas.

THE PATENT

5. The United States Patent and Trademark Office issued the '229 Patent (attached as exhibit A) on April 1, 2008. Through assignment, Plaintiff is the owner of all right, title, and interest in the Patent, including all rights to pursue and collect damages for past infringement of the Patent.

DEFENDANT

6. Upon information and belief, Defendant is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Delaware, with its principal place of business at 101 Park Avenue #41, New York, NY 10178.

CLAIM FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT (Infringement of the '229 patent)

7. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of the allegations in paragraphs 1 – 6 above and further alleges as follows:

8. The United States Patent and Trademark Office issued the '229 patent on April 1, 2008. Plaintiff is the owner of the '229 Patent with full rights to pursue recovery of royalties or damages for infringement of said patent, including full rights to recover past and future damages.

9. The '229 Patent covers systems and methods for providing a type of Internet advertisement commonly known as pop-under advertisements. Pop-under advertisements are advertisements that open behind a browser window. Because the pop-under advertisement is opened behind the web browser, the pop-under advertisement is at least partially obscured by the web browser at the time that it is opened.

10. Defendant, directly or through intermediaries, infringed one or more claims of the '229 patent, by or through making, having made, using, importing, providing, supplying, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale servers running systems or methods, which are used for pop-under advertisement, carried out on Defendant's servers including those servers used in conjunction with Defendant's hosting solutions/products.

11. Defendant hosts a website <http://motherless.com/> , which will open in a web browser. The resulting pop-under advertisement is at least partially obscured by the web browser. As an example, a link to a resulting pop-under advertisement is at http://creatives.livejasmin.com/pu/w2/index.php?tid=kontx_w2_girl_white&psid=ed_mtr6@psto_ol=149+14461_151 . Defendant infringes the '229 Patent by using the systems and methods claimed in the '229 Patent to make, use, sell, or offer to sell pop-under advertisements.

12. Defendant has infringed the '229 patent, and unless enjoined, will continue to do so by using systems and methods of making pop-under advertisements that infringe the claims of the '229 Patent. In the alternative, Defendant induces infringement or contributes to the infringement of the '229 Patent by website publishers, ad servers, ad networks, advertisers, and/or viewers of the advertisements, with knowledge that its acts are infringing. Such systems and methods have no substantially non-infringing use. Defendant engages in such inducement knowingly and, at least from the time of receipt of the present Complaint, has done so with knowledge that such activity encourages publishers, ad servers, ad networks, advertisers, and/or viewers to directly infringe the '229 patent.

13. Plaintiff has been damaged by Defendant's infringements of the '229 patent and will suffer additional irreparable damage and impairment of the value of its patent rights unless Defendant is enjoined from continuing to infringe the '229 patent.

14. Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages from the Defendant to compensate for the infringement.

15. Plaintiff demands trial by jury of all issues relating to this claim.

16. Upon information and belief, at least since the time of service of this complaint, Defendant's acts of infringement have been, and continue to be committed with full knowledge of Plaintiff's rights in the '229 Patent, and in willful and wanton disregard of Plaintiff's rights, rendering this an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment as follows:

A. A decree preliminarily and permanently enjoining Defendant, its officers, directors, employees, agents, and all persons in active concert with them, from infringing, and contributing to or inducing others to infringe the '229 patent;

B. Compensatory damages for Defendant's infringement of the '229 patent;

C. Treble the compensatory damages as a consequence of Defendant's willful infringement;

D. Costs of suit and attorneys' fees;

- E. Pre-judgment interest;
- F. For such other relief as justice requires.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

ExitExchange demands trial by jury on all claims and issues so triable.
